Opening Prayer

Loving Creator of the Cosmos, How is it that the music of your spheres reaches us?

A robin's trill floats across the evening air.

Waves beat their rhythm on sandy shores.

A familiar chord comes to our ear,

And we break into song.

All creation sings to you!

Awaken within us visions of your music.

Awaken within us the voice of your song.

Awaken within us the melody of your love.

And bring us into sacred harmony with each other And with all creation.

Amen.
